History of the Order

By DR. J. G. B. BULLOCH, Chancellor-General.

THIS Order was founded at Mobile, Ala., in the year 1895, and, as far as I am aware, is the only one named for the illustrious general and statesman George Washington. Our membership having become separated, the Order remained in abeyance until an attempt was made by Mr. John Eyerman (of Easton, Pa.), and myself, to revive it. The former had a die cast for the beautiful insignia which was later adopted by the Order, and also issued invitations setting forth the necessary qualifications for admittance to membership. Nothing further was done until I settled permanently in Washington, D. C., when I determined to reorganize the Order, by calling together certain gentlemen known to me to be qualified for membership. As a result of my efforts a meeting was held on the 13th of May, 1908, at the residence of Commander Charles C. Rogers, U. S. N., at which the following resolution was adopted:

"WHEREAS, It should be the duty of all those of illustrious lineage to preserve intact the history and traditions relating to the foundation of their country, and to endeavor to promote peace, happiness, and the general welfare of mankind, therefore, we, the founders of this Order, should use our influence to see that our institutions are kept intact and free from pernicious influences and that freedom and liberty be promoted: Therefore, we whose names are subjoined do now institute an order of patriotism and chivalry to be known as The Order of Washington."

The following named gentlemen were present at the meeting and subscribed to the resolution:

Commander C. C. Rogers, U. S. N.
 General Marcus J. Wright.
 Dr. J. G. B. Bulloch.
 Mr. Ethelbert Fairfax.
 Mr. Cutlibert B. Brown.
 Mr. Howard P. Wright.

In pursuance of above the Order was duly and legally chartered on the 11th of June, 1908, a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation being given below.

JOS. G. B. BULLOCH, M. D.,
Chancellor-General.
